“As disciples and servants of Christ, we need to understand the theology and truths of the life, ministry, person, and deity of Jesus Christ if we are going to grow in and serve Christ faithfully and productively in our lives and ministries,” he said. “The message and events of the Gospel of John provide powerful and important instruction about living and serving as a disciple of Christ.”

Conference sessions are planned for Blue Mountain Christian University in Blue Mountain on April 17; Garaywa Camp and Conference Center in Clinton on April 18; and William Carey University in Hattiesburg on April 19.

There are no fees associated with the conferences. Check-in will be open from 8:30 – 9 a.m. The conferences will start at 9:00 a.m. and end at around 2 p.m. Fellowship lunch will be provided at no cost to attendees.

“We ask that you please register in advance if possible so we can properly plan for lunch that day,” Pace said. To do so, contact Elizabeth Lindigrin at elindigrin@mbcb.org, or (601) 292-3305.

Presenters at the conferences include:

“The message and events of the Gospel of John provide powerful and important instruction about living and serving as a disciple of Christ,” Pace said. “Our 2023 Preaching Conference will feature presentations that examine and analyze the background contexts and theological lessons of the Gospel of John, and provide powerful preaching and teaching ideas on applying these truths to our daily lives of faith and ministry.”

The 2023 Preaching Conference is supported by gifts to the Mississippi Cooperative Program.
