

SBC sexual abuse list now on SBC website

The recently released Guidepost report revealed a list of alleged abusers compiled by a former employee of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) Executive Committee. This list is being made public for the first time as an initial, but important, step towards addressing the scourge of sexual abuse and implementing reform in the Convention. To view the list, click here.