

Southaven church responds to threat of violence

Higgins

SO
UT
HA VE
N, Mi
ss
.
(S pe
ci al
)
—
Br
ow n Mi
ss
io
na
ry Ba
pt
is t Ch
ur
ch
in
So
ut

ha ve
n, a
me
mb
er
of
th e Mi
ss
is
si
pp i
Ba
pt
is t
Co
nv
en
ti on
,
ca
nc
el le d
al l
in
-
pe
rs

on
ev
en
ts
Ju ne
15
af te r
a
ma n
wa s ar
re st ed
on
ch
ur
ch
pr op
er
ty
in
co
nn
ec
ti
on wi th
a te

le
ph
on e
th
re
at to
"s
ho ot
up
"
th
e
ch
ur
ch
.

Southaven Police said Quincy A. Higgins was arrested on one of the church's two campuses in the city and charged with making a terroristic threat. He also has an outstanding warrant for contempt of court, police said. No further details were released.

Ac
co
rd
in g
to

WM0rr

C - TV
in Me

mp
hi
s, Br
ow
n
Pa
st
or Ba
rt
hl om
ew
Or
r sa id
,
“A ll
BM
BC
st
af
f, vo
lu
nt
ee
rs
,
st
ud
en
ts
an

d ot
he r
pe
rs
on
ne
l
ar
e
sa fe
an d we re
ne
ve
r
in
da
ng
er
."

The church issued a statement that reported, "We take every threat made against our church very seriously for the safety and protection of our visitors and members. As a result of this most recent threat, we are receiving surveillance support from Southaven Police and our internal security team. Every church, business and organization is forced to remain vigilant against the violence taking place across our nation, even in places once considered safe havens."